

Wesleyan Defeats Bethany By Overwhelming Score of 64 to 0

HEAVNER'S PLAYING FEATURES CONTEST

While "Bill" Jacobs, Also a Local Boy, Plays a Consistent Game.

BUCKHANNON, Oct. 9.—West Virginia Wesleyan's game with Bethany college here today was largely a matter of Wesleyan kicking off to Bethany, taking the ball on downs and then running over the line for touchdowns. The final score was 64-0, and since Bethany was expected to offer strong resistance it came as more or less of a surprise.

Wesleyan offense showed to greater advantage than heretofore this season and the strength of the defense is shown in the fact that Bethany made but one first down, this being the result of a penalty.

The first half ended with the score only 20-0 in favor of Wesleyan, but the team came back with more "pepper" than has been exhibited this year and fairly ate up the yard lines in the last two quarters. It would be difficult to pick individual stars on the Wesleyan team. The most brilliant bits of work exhibited in the offensive line was a thirty yard pass and an additional run of thirty-five yards engineered by Morrison and Heavner early in the game, and Blake's forty yard run through the entire Bethany aggregation for a touchdown in the last quarter. The playing of Heck for Wesleyan stood out conspicuously as he was always good for gains of from ten to twenty-five yards and his tackling was fierce and productive of many losses for Bethany. Shumaker was also a bright light both on offense and defense and Jacobs at fullback played a consistent game.

Gould, a new man promoted to variety tackle from the scrubs, was conspicuous by his work on the defense and the work of Captain Kellison and Allen also in this respect. Gould also stood out prominently. Heavner continued his blocking of kicks, one resulting in Morrison picking up the ball for a touchdown. Wesleyan was penalized no less than two hundred yards during the game for holding, offside and other infractions of the rules. For Bethany no particular man showed form either on the offense or defense.

Though Schwab did some good work in the latter respect, Elder, the highly touted full back failed to gain with any success against Wesleyan's forwards.

BELINGTON HIGH WINS. (SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM) BELINGTON, Oct. 9.—Belington High school defeated the West Virginia and the Reserves, with many of 26 to 0. The game was clean and fast and the reserves, with many of their men missing, put up a game fight. Korbrough was the shining light for Belington, while C. Smith was a bear on defense, as were Durst and A. Lewis. Burnside and Curtis gained most consistently for the Reserves.

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—G.H. Anderson won the 350 mile race for the Astor cup at the New Sheepshead Bay speedway today, in the fastest and one of the closest automobile contests ever held.

Anderson's time for the course was three hours, 24 minutes, 42 seconds, ten minutes and 43 seconds better than the world's record made at Chicago.

Tom Rooney was second in 3:25:29, also beating the former record of 3:25:25.48.

Bob Burman was third at 3:46 miles when engine trouble forced him to stop during attempts to catch Rooney.

O'Donnell, who was between seventh and fifth place during the first three hours, sprinted into third place in the last ten miles. He finished in 3:39:55, fifteen minutes and 13 seconds behind Anderson.

Resta and Cooper, who were later forced out of the race, alternated in the lead for the first one hundred miles. Anderson then held the lead to the one hundred seventy-fifth mile when J. A. Aitken passed him. A broken valve put Aitken's car out in the two hundred forty-first mile and soon after this Anderson took the lead and held it to the finish.

BASEBALL MAGAZINE

The Baseball Magazine has just brought forth a World's Series special number with a cover design that is a wonder. The issue contains many records and statistics on the World Series players together with their photographs. Although the World's Series comes in for a great amount of space in this special number, yet there is described another series—an all star American League team playing an all star National League team, the magazine editors maintain will be the ideal series. It is proposed that this series be played annually early in July to stimulate the interest which is usually lacking at that time. It will be the last word in contests for real baseball supremacy.

While He Gets Three Hits Out of Four Trips to the Plate, One a Double.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 9.—The breakers of the game, those thick favors of fortune that sway the pendulum of fate, smiled upon Boston today and tonight the red-robed champions of the American League and the Philadelphia pennant bearers of the National circuit were on their way to Boston with the honors of the 1915 world's series all at events.

Foster a Hero. President Woodrow Wilson, and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, shared the honors of the second contest with a stoutly built young Boston pitcher known to baseball fame as George Foster. Foster may never go down in history as an Alexander, a Walter Johnson or a Christy Mathewson, but when the story of the second batch of the current series is filed away in the archives of the national pastime it will be found that all he did today was to hold the fighting Phillies to three base hits, to strike out eight of their best wielders of the willow, to make as many hits himself as he allowed the entire opposition including a splendid smash in the ninth that sent Gardner across the plate with the winning Boston run. In addition to these few meagre activities in the box, Young Foster sped to first base a couple of times and took throwaways from his fellow fielders that turned two seeming errors into sensational outs.

Mr. Foster on the field and Mr. Wilson in the stand, were indexed the heroes of the day. Foster won by 2 to 1. The president had a wider margin for the more than 20,000 baseball enthusiasts that crowded in the friendly little Philly park, were on their feet, for and with Mr. Wilson, time after time, they greeted him with cheers when he came and forgot the sting of defeat to send him on his way to Washington with shouts that echoed for blocks around.

Mrs. Galt Greatly Admired. Mrs. Galt was greatly admired by the baseball throngs and was smilingly happy over the attending show-ers upon her.

The president rooted royally for the home team. When the signal for "all up" came in the supposedly myriads seventh inning, Mr. Wilson was among the first on his feet. But when the tumult and the shouting died the Philly cause had not been bettered for Foster in this frame turned back the first three men to face him. In the last half of the ninth when the Phillies plight was desperate, a band in the grand stand began to play the Star Spangled Banner. Mr. Wilson caught the first strains of the national anthem and again was on his feet followed by the entire crowd. The bleachers in the far field stand heard the music too and joined the standing throng with hand in hand. The scene was one of genuine dramatic tenseness, but it was not written in the book of baseball that the Phillies
